Christine Bourbeau

Saturday,
October 19th
11am - 2pm

Christine Bourbeau realized when she began writing children's books, there were not many stories explaining the pagan faith to younger children. She was inspired to write books that stretched beyond the pagan community and focused on religious tolerance and inclusion.

The main character in each story is 9-year-old Aggie who explains pagan holidays and beliefs through her eyes. The first book in the series The Adventures of Aggie Pentacle Party teaches the symbolism and importance of the pentacle. The second book The Adventures of Aggie Cauldron Bubbles focuses on learning the basics of making a potion and using your imagination.
