

Author Event

David R. Schoorens

Saturday, January 11th 12-3pm

Just in time for Inauguration Day, this debut novel is part thriller, dystopian fiction, political intrigue, and morality play, depicting the United States as a country in chaos.

A national election broken by political violence, and a fearful electorate clinging to past mythical glories, combine to give a far-right president unprecedented power. The descent into autocracy has happened. And all that was necessary was an election.

In Canada, can expatriates survive threats from the new government and bring democracy back? And can those in service to this new government bear the moral burden that obedience to an autocracy demands?

Refuge is not just a novel—it is a warning of what our country's near future could be.

tatnuck
bookseller
Gift Gallery & Café

Westborough Shopping Center
Route 9 & Lyman St. • 508-366-4959
Open Mon-Sat 10am-6pm • Sun 10am-5pm
www.tatnuck.com

